

Thomas J. Allison, CTP

Senior Advisor

Education & Certification

- Certified Turnaround Professional (1994)
- Master of Business Administration, Finance and Accounting – DePaul University
- Bachelor of Science, Commerce – DePaul University

Activities & Recognition

- 2018 TMA Hall of Fame Inductee
- 2018 TMA Peter Tourtellot Award
- 2017 TMA Legend Award
- 2014 Global M&A Network Transaction of the Year
- 2011 TMA Midsize Company Turnaround of the Year

Thomas Allison is a Senior Advisor at Portage Point Partners and has previously served as Chairman, CEO, CRO, Lead Independent Director, Chief Recovery Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Executive Vice President serving companies in challenging situations, unlocking and maximizing value for all stakeholders. He has been a corporate officer or key advisor in some of the largest and most complex turnarounds and restructurings in a variety of industries. Tom has provided interim leadership in a wide range of complex organizational and financial restructurings

Prior to joining Portage Point, Mr. Allison was an Executive Vice President and Senior Managing Director at Mesirow Financial Consulting where he managed complex turnarounds and advised on major reorganizations and insolvencies. He served as interim President & CEO of Franciscan Sisters of Chicago Service Corporations and also guided Sprint Nextel's Board through a cash management crisis, chairing the Capital Rationing Committee and leading a 40-person team in developing a cash forecasting / management / disbursement system

Previously, Mr. Allison was the National Practice Leader, Restructuring Group for Huron Consulting Group. As one of the original founders of Huron, he led the Huron team serving as Financial Advisor to ATA Airlines during its bankruptcy. He was also Partner-in-

Charge for the Arthur Andersen Central Region Restructuring Practice and managed the sale and bankruptcy process at Comdisco. As EVP / CFO, he managed a major turnaround plan for FPA Medical Management, Inc. and served as Interim CFO for United American Healthcare Corporation

Mr. Allison has served on numerous Boards of Directors and is currently Director and Chair of the Audit Committee for Monroe Capital, Director for PTC Group Holdings Corp., Lead Independent Director for Novum Pharma, and a Trustee for INSYS Therapeutics Inc. He was an Independent Board Member for Rockpile Energy Services in 2016, Director for The Nordam Group from 2018 to 2019, Director for Papa Geno's from 2018 to 2019, and an Independent Director for Silver Airways from 2014 to 2016. In 2014, he was Chief Executive Officer and Independent Board Member for American Optical Services and he served as Chairman of the Board for Forge Group in Perth, Australia in 2014

Contact Information

M (312) 543-4499

E tallison@pppllc.com