

Jason Cohen

Managing Director, Head of Investment Banking

Education & Certification

- Juris Doctor, Brooklyn Law School
- Bachelor of Science in Political Science, University of Connecticut
- Series 7, 24 and 63 Certified

Organizations

- New York State Bar Association
- FINRA

Jason Cohen recently joined Portage Point as a Managing Director and Head of Investment Banking. Jason has 25 years of experience in corporate finance and restructuring, with the last 15 years spent in the Restructuring Group at Lazard. While at Lazard, Jason focused on recapitalizations, financings, liability management transactions, restructurings, and sales, both in and out-of-court, across a myriad of industries. Jason spent considerable time at Lazard working in the middle market, which included his position as Head of the Lazard Middle Market Restructuring Group

Jason successfully led the following key engagements while at Lazard, among others, CSM Bakery, Empire Resorts, TopGolf, Liberty Tire, FuelCell Energy, and Sidewinder Drilling financing and liability management transactions; Liberty Tire, Sidewinder Drilling, and IAP Worldwide out-of-court restructurings; Z Gallerie, GST Autoleather, LSP Batesville, Eddie Bauer, and American Safety Razor bankruptcy 363 sales; Libbey Glass, ModSpace, NewPage, TrueTemper Sports, Los Angeles Dodgers, and Hayes-Lemmerz Chapter 11 reorganizations

Prior to joining Lazard, Jason spent nearly a decade practicing law in the Financial Restructuring department of the law firm of Cadwalader, Wickersham Taft LLP. While at Cadwalader, Jason represented various parties in interest in numerous restructurings across a variety of industries

Jason graduated from the University of Connecticut and Brooklyn Law School. Jason is a member of the New York state bar and holds his Series 7, 24 and 63 FINRA licenses

Contact Information

M (917) 686-4013

E jcohen@pppllc.com