Associate

Education & Certification

- B.A. Economics, Art History – Cornell University
- Minor in Business – Cornell University
- Series 7 Certified
- Series 63 Certified

Skye currently serves as an Associate where she is responsible for conducting financial and operational analysis, developing key performance indicators, supporting value creation initiatives, constructing 13-week cash flows, analyzing working capital assessments and assisting in the overall implementation of value maximization strategies.

Prior to joining Portage Point, Skye was an analyst on the Distressed Desk / Special Situations Group at Jefferies, where she generated views on sector credits by performing thorough business due diligence and building complex financial models that assess profitability trends, project cash flows and estimate valuation in a variety of scenarios. In addition, she worked closely with the salesforce to sell primary high yield and leveraged loan issuance by collaborating with management teams and providing detailed diligence responses to potential investors.

Skye graduated with a Bachelor of Arts from Cornell University where she double majored in Economics and Art History, and minored in Business. Skye holds her Series 7 and Series 63.
