

Elyse Murphy

Director, Talent Acquisition

Education & Certification

- BS in Communication and International Studies from Southern Methodist University

Elyse Murphy is the Director of Talent Acquisition for Portage Point Partners and is focused on bringing top talent to our growing firm across all four service lines and internal operations. Elyse brings more than eleven years of recruiting experience in the professional services industry

Elyse started her career in campus recruitment at Northwestern Mutual and Sendero Consulting in Dallas. She moved into experienced recruitment at Slalom Consulting and then West Monroe Partners. Prior to joining Portage Point Partners, Elyse spent time at Riveron where she recruited for internal operations, Tax Advisory, Business Transformation, and Business Development. She also launched an early careers program and helped to start a mentorship program within the Women's Leadership network. Elyse is passionate about building strong connections and relationships. She prides herself on delivering a great candidate experience and being an advocate for diversity and inclusion

Elyse holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Communication and International Studies from Southern Methodist University

Contact Information

M (949) 306 3004

E emurphy@pppllc.com